

AN OENOPHILE'S DELIGHT

A Wine Cellar is Born

After

Before

GENERAL CONTRACTOR JEFFERY Wolf pleased his client by turning an unassuming under-stair coat closet into a beautiful wine cellar. Wolf used cigar-box cedar shelves to impart a special bouquet to the room, while a climate-control system keeps everything at the temperature needed to protect this homeowner's eclectic wine collection. The door to the cellar was a standard louvered door before Wolf artistically transformed it into this handsome and appropriate entryway. ■
